

The Process of Medical Aid/Insurance

- 1) The Medical Aid process is the contributing of money by a number of people into one fund, from which payments will be made for the medical expenses of any one or more of the contributors.
- 2) The fund belongs to all its members, because they are the ones who ultimately benefit from it.
- 3)